

Request for Special Consideration (Pathways B and D)

Applicant Name: _____

Candidates must submit a one-page statement explaining why they are requesting special consideration to take the CBGC examination and why they believe they should be considered eligible. Use the questions below to guide your response.

1. Summarize your professional background in genetic counselling and explain how it aligns with the competencies required for the CBGC examination and the mission of the CBGC.

2. What are your primary reasons for seeking Canadian certification as an internationally trained genetic counsellor?

3. Outline your future professional goals and any current or expected connection to Canada, such as employment, clinical practice, research, or collaboration. Explain how CBGC certification supports these goals.

4. Include any other information that supports your eligibility request, such as relevant training, experience, collaborations, or institutional requirements.
